1. Messrs. Amory, Angleton, Kirkpatrick, Houston, [ ] Paul and [ ] met with the Director to brief him on a White House meeting concerning possible amendments to the Communications Act of 1934. [ ] [ ] will prepare further briefing papers to support the Director's concurrence in the State Department proposal, which would permit the President to extend reciprocal rights to foreign countries for the transmission of radio messages out of this country through their own facilities.
